Blackstone's Law Questions and Answers Series gives students the opportunity to practise their exam techniques and evaluate and assess their progress. This new edition of Blackstone's QandA on Contract Law has been fully revised to offer comprehensive and up to date coverage of all the essential aspects of the law. The ideal revision aid, it is divided into chapters covering each major topic, and contains fifty questions and answers designed to test even the best prepared student. Each chapter contains an introduction focusing on important legal aspects and points of interest. After each question there is a commentary which highlights the essential elements of each question, and bullet pointed answer plans to illustrate what the examiners are looking for. This gives students an insight into the law of contract and instant confidence to face assessment. In light of recent legal developments the new edition has a rewritten chapter on 'Mistake' with new questions and commentary to guide students through the topic. Companion web site The new edition has an accompanying companion web site with web links to useful external web sites and a glossary of key terms, essential for students studying contract law. Shariah law is a subject that is misunderstood and misrepresented by many in the West. More than simply a system of law, it is concerned with a set of values and rules that are essential to the understanding and practice of Islam. In this volume, Mohammad Hashim Kamali, a world-renowned expert on Shariah, adopts a question-and-answer format to provide a clear introduction to its most salient aspects. Extending from the sources of Shariah in the Qur'an, hadith and the legal maxims of Islamic law to the discussion of issues such as freedom of religion, gender equality and human rights, Shariah Law: Questions and Answers connects the theoretical aspects of the law with how it is applied in the world today.
